Payor Benefit

Many parents choose to plan ahead for their children by taking out an insurance plan for them, but few parents realise the impact of not being able to pay the premium under the plan when faced with unexpected circumstances. With our Payor Benefit, Prudential assures that your child will maintain full protection under his/her policy, regardless of any mishaps which may occur.

The benefits

Comprehensive coverage to safeguard your child's benefit

Payor Benefit protects your child's coverage in the event that you are unable to pay the premiums as a result of a total disability or death. Under these unfortunate circumstances, the premiums for your child's basic plan and the attached supplementary benefit(s) falling due will be waived until your child reaches the age of 22¹ (age next birthday).

Payor Benefit is available to any person aged between 20 (age next birthday) and 50 (age next birthday) who has taken out a juvenile life plan for a child.

With Payor Benefit, you can ensure that your child's policy will not be affected by your inability to pay the premium under the circumstances outlined above.

Life and total disability coverage

Payor Benefit provides life and total disability coverage. Should the payor die or suffer total disability² continuously for more than 180 days, the premiums for your child's basic plan (if applicable) and the attached supplementary benefit(s) falling due will be waived.

Level premium with variable attachable basic plans

With a level and competitive premium, Payor Benefit can be attached to a variety of juvenile basic life plans.

Key exclusions

As a result of death or disability, we will not waive premiums if the death or disability is a direct or indirect result of:

- (I) pre-existing physical or mental defect or infirmity; or
- (II) war, hostilities (whether war is declared or not), rebellion, insurrection, riot, or civil commotion; or
- (III) alcohol, narcotics or drugs unless taken as prescribed by a Registered Doctor; or

- (V) participation in any criminal offence; or
- (VI) scuba diving or engaging in or taking part in any kind of race other than on foot; or
- (VII) travelling or flights in any vehicle or device for aerial navigation other than as a fare-paying passenger on a scheduled public air service.

For more details on exclusions, please refer to relevant policy provisions.

Important information

Cancellation right

A customer who has bought the life insurance plans has a right to cancel the policy within the cooling-off period and obtain a refund of any premium(s) and levy(ies) paid less any withdrawals. Provided that no claim has been made, the customer may cancel the policy by giving written notice to us within 21 calendar days immediately following either the day of delivery of (1) the policy or (2) the notice (informing the availability of the policy and expiry date of the cooling-off period) to the customer or his/her nominated representative, whichever is earlier. Such notice must be signed by the customer and received directly by Prudential Hong Kong Limited at 8/F, Prudential Tower, The Gateway, Harbour City, 21 Canton Road, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon, Hong Kong within the cooling-off period.

The premium and levy will be refunded in the currency of premium and levy payment at the time of application for this policy. If the currency of premium and levy payment is not the same as the plan currency, the refundable premium and levy amount in plan currency under this policy will be converted to the currency of premium and levy payment at the prevailing currency exchange rate as determined by us in our absolute discretion from time to time upon payment. After the cooling-off period expires, if a customer cancels the policy before the end of benefit term, the actual cash value (if applicable) may be substantially less than the total amount of premiums paid.
